

From the Pastor's Desk

We are beginning, this month, to go to newsletters on a quarterly basis. Many have expressed concerns about calendars, birthdays & anniversaries list, and monthly Bible reading schedules. These items will be printed and placed, each month, on the table in the vestibule of the sanctuary. Please be aware that all information, activities, updates and important church news will continue to be on our website (baptisttabernaclechurch.net). I look forward to your feedback over the next few months about the success of this change in procedure. Remember, you can always call me with any questions that you have. Praise God for His blessings and provision as we continue to serve Him. Keep Looking Up...

Remember- "The Best IS Yet To Be!"

Pastor Glen

Food For Thought: Prayer

---

How do you get to know someone? You spend time with them and talk with them. That is what prayer is all about; talking to God and getting to know Him in a more intimate and personal way. Many are afraid or don't know how to pray. God welcomes your prayers and conversations with Him. There are approximately 667 prayers recorded in the Bible, and there are 454 answers to those prayers recorded. That ought to give us hope and encouragement! I have been asked, "When should I pray?" Well, the answer is simple. "Pray without ceasing!" Obviously, you can't be on your knees in prayer every minute of the day; however, you can be in an attitude of prayer always. Just as you have a set time to feed your body, I believe that we ought to have a set time, each day, to pray. It has been a work in progress for me. I make every effort to pray, morning, noon and night. I like what Thomas Fuller said, "Prayer should be the key of the day and lock of the night." In Psalm 55:17, it says, "Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice." This is a good pattern, yet there isn't a wrong time to pray. I find myself praying beyond these designated times. I break into prayer when I need to, or feel the leading of the Spirit to do so. I find that the more that I pray, the easier it is to talk with my God. Talking to God is like talking to a good friend that loves you and has your best interest at heart. Don't let a day go by without talking to God in prayer. Get up talking to God, talk with Him midday to assess the morning and close out your day with prayer, thanksgiving and promise. When you establish a set time to pray, you will find that you will be praying more than the set times, and you will anticipate the connection with God. Remember, if we are to grow, if we are to serve, and if we are to honor God, we must spend time with Him, in prayer, every single day!

In HIS Love,

Pastor Glen

From the Administrative Team

If you are a member of Baptist Tabernacle Church, you should have a Manual of Administrative Policies. This manual includes the Church Constitution, By-Laws, Personnel Manual & Job Descriptions, and General Church Policies. These items are necessary to operate the Church to ensure that it is run and managed in accordance with written rules and regulations. Without these rules, organizations, such as Churches, cannot operate effectively and efficiency.

The Administrative Team is responsible for revision of the contents of this manual. Anyone wishing to revise any item contained in the Manual of Administrative Policies should bring the proposed changes to the Administrative Team for implementation and approval of the Leadership Team and the Church as needed.

- ◆ Church Constitution—This contains the Preamble of the Church, the Mission Statement, the Statement of Faith, and the Church Covenant. These are the basic beliefs of the Church. The Administrative Team periodically reviews each of these sections for revision and updates. Generally, these do not require much maintenance or revising. The last change was made in 2002. The Administrative Team makes the needed changes to the Constitution and presents them to the Leadership Team for approval and then to the Church for approval, at Church Conference with a 30 day notice to the Church.
- ◆ Church By-Laws—The By-Laws contain eleven articles:
  - I. Name and Privileges,
  - II. Organizational Meetings,
  - III. Officers and Ministry Teams,

From the Administrative Team (Continued)

- IV. Deacons,
- V. Church Membership,
- VI. Baptism,
- VII. Communion,
- VIII. Termination of Membership
- IX. Burial,
- X. Affiliation,
- XI. Adoption of Amendments.

The By-Laws require periodic review and revision and are one of the primary jobs of the Administrative Team. Similarly to the Constitution, changes to the By-Laws are made by the Administrative Team and presented to the Leadership Team for their approval prior to submitting to the Church for Approval.

- ◆ Personnel Manual & Job Descriptions—This section includes the job description and benefit package for the Pastor, as well as the job descriptions for the Youth Director, Church Secretary, Outside Building and Grounds Maintenance, and Church Custodian. Although they are not regularly reviewed and revised, they do require some maintenance. The Administrative Team reviews and revises these job descriptions when needed and makes the necessary changes. Any changes to these job descriptions require approval of the Church. The Administrative Team is responsible for corrections and submittal to the Church for approval after review by the Leadership Team.
- ◆ Ministry Teams & Church Committees—Job Responsibilities: The Administrative Team is responsible for reviewing and maintaining these job descriptions. They are periodically reviewed with any recommended changes presented to the affected Ministry Team prior to recommendation revision. After the affected Ministry Team approves the changes they are presented to the Leadership Team for review and then presented to the Church for approval.
- ◆ General Church Policies—These are:
  - Memorial Gift Policy,
  - Rules for Operation of the Church Bus,
  - Guidelines for the use of the Church Buildings,
  - Financial Policies and Procedures of the Church.

These are also maintained by the Administrative Team. Currently the policies for the use of the Church Buildings are under revision since the Church recently voted to no longer allow non-Church members to rent the buildings. The Administrative Team actively reviews and recommends changes to the policies and procedures to ensure that these policies stay up to date and are useable by the Church. The General Church Policies also require Church approval.

Again, we hope this helps you understand the duties of the Administrative Team as well as a general introduction of the Constitution & By-Laws. As always, if you have any questions, comments, or recommendations for the Administrative Team, please feel free to contact any member concerning any of these items.

Youth Happenings

The youth are getting really excited for summer camp 2017! This year is already flying by so fast and pretty soon it will be time for us to leave for our mission trip to Virginia Beach! Youth camp is scheduled for June 18-24. We have been beyond blessed by your love and support already this year and we are so appreciative of everything our church family has done. Please continue to send up prayers for the 21 that will be attending camp this year.

Camp Info & Fundraiser Opportunity:

In preparation for our trip you still have a couple opportunities to help! We will be holding our final fundraiser on Saturday, April 8th! We will be holding a bake sale in front of Aubrey & Peedie's grill in Wendell from 7:00 –1:00. We need lots of baked goodies to sell that day. We need whole cakes, pies, desserts, and also individual items to sell. Please see Carrie Sellers if you would be willing to donate any items for our bake sale that day.

Important !!! Youth Camp Meeting:

On Wednesday, May 17th @ 6:30 we will be holding a parent/youth camp meeting in the FMC! This is when we will be discussing what to bring, travel details, and also providing a notary to notarize our camp forms! Please make arrangements to attend this meeting if you are participating in youth camp this year.

Again we want to thank our church family for all of your support. Please continue to lift our youth up in prayer as we prepare for our summer trip, but also as we continue our weekly Bible studies. We are continuing to discuss the "Top 20" messages for youth today. We are examining stories in the Bible and connecting them to re-life experiences that our youth have. May God continue to bless each and every one of you!

God Bless,
Carrie

Sense of Humor: In Need Of Prayer

---

A young boy called the pastor of a local "corner" church to ask the pastor to come by to pray for his mother who had been very ill with the flu.

The pastor knew the family and was aware they had been attending another church down the road. So the pastor asked, "Shouldn't you be asking Brother Simon down the road to come by to pray with your mom?"

The young boy replied, "Yeah, but we didn't want to take the chance that he might catch whatever this is that Mom has."

April

In the month of April, we will celebrate Palm Sunday and Easter. Palm Sunday is the Sunday before Easter, when the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem is celebrated in many Christian churches by processions in which palm fronds are carried. Jesus was nailed to a cross, thorns were placed on his head, his sides were pierced and he was whipped as he hung there and died for our sins. This is what we call the Crucifixion. On Easter Sunday, we will celebrate the resurrection of the crucifixion. What a glorious day that will be.

A Palm Sunday Meditation: Palms will wave in my joyous heart, Glad hosannas I will sing, Mid the din of life's dull roar Bells will victory's message ring. From the mist of years now dead, Rides a Man with quiet grace, As a shouting, eager throng Hail Him King, before His face. Hushed in awe the loud acclaim, When they see the journey's end, Palms of victory, praise and song...He must His own life blood spend. Author: Ralph Welles Keeler.

Easter Come and Go: "Come, see the place where the Lord lay," Said the angel in garments of white. Come, see the cavern, once gloomy, Now flooded with heavenly light. Come, see the place He made sacred, Make sure 'tis an empty tomb: For Christ the Redeemer is risen, And banished is sorrow and gloom. "Go quickly" and bear the glad tidings, Delay not the story to tell To the millions who linger in darkness: He triumphs o'er death and o'er hell. Go quickly and witness for Jesus; Go tell of His matchless love, How for us He now makes intercession At the throne of the Father above. "Come, see," and "Go, tell," is the challenge of Easter, to you and to me,...Come, see for yourself and be happy, Go, tell that salvation is free. Author: P.E. Holdcraft.

May

In the month of May, we celebrate Mother's Day and Memorial Day. Mothers day is a celebration honoring the mother of the family, as well as motherhood, maternal bonds, and the influence of mothers in society. It is a time when we all should let our mothers know just how much we appreciate them for what they have done for us. Mothers go through a lot from the time of conception to the day of delivery to bring a child into this world. With the help of Jesus Christ and our fathers, our mothers are there for us and to teach us right from wrong, lead us in the word and show us the path of righteousness that God would want us to walk in.

Memorial Day is a federal holiday in the United states for remembering the people who dies while serving in the country's armed forces.

Mother's Day: Let every day be Mother's Day. Make roses grow along the way, and beauty everywhere. Oh, never let her eyes be wet with tears of sorrow and regret, And never cease to care. Come, grown up children, and rejoice that you can hear your mother's voice. A day for her? For you she gave Long years of love and service brave, For you her youth was spent. There was no weight or hurt or care, Too heavy for her strength to bear? She followed where you went; Her courage and her love sublime, you could depend on all the time. Author: Guest

Memorial Day: Bring flowers! bring flowers! bring roses red, To deck the gallant soldier's bed; In freedom's cause his blood was shed. Bring flowers! bring flowers! bring lilies white, Honor the men who fell in fight, Contending bravely for the right. Bring flowers! bring flowers! bring flowers violets, And o'er their sacred ashes strew; They stood unflinching, firm and true. Bring flowers in honor of the brave, And let the starry banner wave Over each gallant soldier's grave. Bring flowers! the fairest that appear, To dress their tombs to us so dear...Our noble dead! respicing here. Author: Rev. J.R. Creswell

June

In the month of June, we celebrate Father's Day. Father's Day is a celebration honoring fathers and celebrating fatherhood, paternal bonds, and the influence of fathers in society. Let's all take the time today to spend with our fathers and thank him for being the head of our household, being there for our family, providing for us and showing us the way to be Christ-like.

Father's Day Poem: You never said I'm leaving you never said goodbye. You were gone before I knew it, And only God knew why. A million times I needed you, A million times I cried. If Love alone could have saved you, You would have never died. In Life I loved you dearly In death I love you still. In my heart you hold a place, That no one could ever fill. It broke my heart to lose you, But you didn't go alone. For part of me went with you, The day God took you home.
